

Assignment 2 (30 Marks)

Task 1

Organization Structure (10 Marks)

Objective: To evaluate the effectiveness of your current organization's structure by analyzing its alignment with operational demands and strategic goals, identifying strengths and weaknesses, and proposing evidence-based recommendations.

Task Instructions

1. Select Your Organization

- Choose your current organization (or a hypothetical one with instructor approval).
- Ensure you have sufficient knowledge of its structure, processes, and strategic objectives.

2. Describe the Organizational Structure

- Identify and define the type of structure (e.g., simple, functional, divisional, matrix, hybrid).
- Use visuals (e.g., organizational charts, diagrams) to illustrate the structure.
- Spot your job title in the structure (e.g., You may use arrow to point to you positing in the org chart)

3. Analyze Alignment with Strategic Objectives

- Explain how the current structure supports or hinders the organization's strategic goals (e.g., innovation, Efficiency, customer focus, global expansion).
 - Example: A matrix structure may foster cross-functional collaboration (advantage) but create role ambiguity (disadvantage) in a company prioritizing innovation.

4. Evaluate Effectiveness in the Operational Environment

- Assess how the structure interacts with the organization's external environment (e.g., industry volatility, regulatory constraints, competition) and internal environment (e.g., size, culture, technology).
- Example: A rigid hierarchical structure may slow decision-making in a fast-paced tech startup.

5. Identify Key Advantages and Disadvantages

- Discuss 3–4 advantages (e.g., clarity of roles, scalability, efficiency).
- Discuss 3–4 disadvantages (e.g., siloed teams, bureaucratic delays, poor adaptability).

6. Recommend Improvements (If Possible)

- Propose 1–2 structural adjustments (e.g., flattening hierarchy, adopting a hybrid model, enhancing cross-departmental teams).
- Justify how these changes address weaknesses while preserving strengths.

Deliverables

1. Written Report :

- Introduction: Overview of the organization.
- Description and visual representation of the structure.
- Advantages, disadvantages, and recommendations.
- Conclusion: Summary of key insights.

Task 2

Leadership Style (10 Marks)

Objective: To critically analyze and justify the leadership style most suited to your current organizational role, considering its responsibilities, challenges, and opportunities, while evaluating its potential benefits and limitations in your specific context.

Task Instructions

1. Describe Your Current Role and Context (2 Marks)

- Briefly outline your role, key responsibilities, and reporting structure (e.g., team size, functional area).

2. Select and Justify a Leadership Style (3 Marks)

- Choose one leadership style (e.g., transformational, transactional, democratic, situational, autocratic) that aligns with your role's demands.
- Justify your choice using:
 - Theoretical frameworks (e.g., The Managerial Grid, Situational Leadership).
 - Role-specific factors (e.g., need for innovation, stakeholder management, crisis response).

3. Evaluate Benefits and Limitations (3 Marks)

- Discuss 2–3 potential benefits of your chosen style in your context (e.g., fosters creativity, improves morale, enhances decision-making speed).
- Analyze 2–3 limitations (e.g., time-consuming in hierarchical cultures, ineffective in high-pressure scenarios).
- Use real examples from your experience to illustrate these points.

4. Recommend Mitigation Strategies (2 Marks)

- Propose 1–2 strategies to address the limitations of your chosen style (e.g., blending styles, training, communication adjustments).

Deliverables

- Written Analysis: Structured according to the task instructions above.

Task 3

Market Entry Mode Strategy (10 Marks)

Objective: To evaluate and recommend a market entry mode for international expansion, aligned with your organization's strategic goals, using a PEST analysis to justify your decision.

Task Instructions

1. Select Your Organization and Target Market

- Choose your current organization (or a hypothetical one if you are not employed) and a country for international expansion.
- Ensure the target country aligns with your organization's strategic goals (e.g., growth, diversification, innovation).

2. Conduct a PEST Analysis

Analyze the Political, Economic, Social, and Technological factors of the target country. Use credible data (e.g., government reports, World Bank, industry analyses) to address:

- Political: Government stability, trade policies, regulations, tariffs, and regional conflict.
- Economic: GDP growth, inflation, exchange rates, labor costs, and market size.
- Social: Cultural norms, consumer behavior, demographics, and language barriers.
- Technological: Infrastructure, digital adoption, R&D ecosystem, and technological readiness.

3. Recommend a Market Entry Mode

Based on your PEST analysis, recommend one market entry mode from the following options:

- Exporting
- Licensing/Franchising
- Joint Venture/Strategic Alliance
- Wholly Owned Subsidiary (Greenfield Investment or Acquisition)
- Other (e.g., e-commerce/digital entry).

Justify your choice by explaining:

- How the PEST factors support or challenge your recommendation.
-

Deliverables

1. Written Report:

- Introduction: Organization's strategic goals and rationale for target country.
- PEST Analysis: Detailed evaluation of the four factors.
- Market Entry Recommendation: Justification linking PEST insights into the chosen mode.

Grading Rubric
Criteria	Excellent (90-100%)	Very Good (80-89%)	Satisfactory (70-79%)	Needs Improvement (60-69%)	Unsatisfactory (Below 60%)
1. Market Entry Mode Strategy (10 Marks)
Selection & Justification	Clearly identifies a suitable entry mode and provides a strong, well-supported justification, directly aligning with the organization's strategic goals and PEST analysis.	Identifies a suitable entry mode with a good justification, generally aligning with organizational goals and PEST analysis.	Identifies an entry mode with some justification, but the alignment with organizational goals or PEST analysis may be unclear.	Identifies an entry mode with weak justification or the choice may be unsuitable for the organization.	Fails to identify a suitable entry mode or provides no justification.
PEST Analysis	Offers a comprehensive and insightful analysis of all four PEST factors, using credible sources and demonstrating deep understanding.	Provides a good analysis of the PEST factors, considering key elements and using relevant sources.	Provides a basic analysis of the PEST factors but may overlook some important aspects or sources.	Provides a superficial analysis, missing key factors or demonstrating limited understanding of the PEST framework.	Lacks analysis or demonstrates a significant misunderstanding of the PEST framework.
Recommendation & Alignment	Effectively links the PEST analysis to justify the chosen entry mode, demonstrating a clear understanding of the target market and strategic implications.	Adequately links the PEST analysis to the chosen entry mode, showing a reasonable understanding of the market and strategy.	Partially links the PEST analysis to the chosen entry mode, with some connection to the market and strategy.	Struggles to connect the PEST analysis to the chosen entry mode, with limited understanding of the market and strategy.	Fails to connect the PEST analysis to the chosen entry mode or demonstrates a misunderstanding of the process.
2. Organizational Structure (10 Marks)	Excellent (90-100%)	Very Good (80-89%)	Satisfactory (70-79%)	Needs Improvement (60-69%)	Unsatisfactory (Below 60%)
Structure Description & Analysis	Clearly describes and visualizes the organizational structure, providing a thorough analysis of its alignment with strategic objectives and operational environment.	Describes and visualizes the organizational structure, providing a good analysis of its alignment with strategic objectives and operational environment.	Describes the organizational structure with a basic analysis of its alignment with strategic objectives and operational environment.	Provides a superficial description and analysis of the organizational structure, demonstrating limited understanding.	Fails to describe or analyze the organizational structure, demonstrating a significant misunderstanding.
Advantages & Disadvantages	Identifies and articulates 3-4 key advantages and disadvantages with insightful examples, demonstrating a deep understanding.	Identifies and articulates 3-4 advantages and disadvantages with relevant examples.	Identifies 3-4 advantages and disadvantages with basic examples.	Identifies some advantages and disadvantages, but examples may be weak or missing.	Fails to identify or articulate advantages and disadvantages.
Recommendations	Proposes 1-2 well-justified structural adjustments that effectively address	Proposes 1-2 structural adjustments that address weaknesses and preserve strengths.	Proposes 1-2 structural adjustments with limited justification.	Proposes structural adjustments that are poorly justified or do not address key	Fails to propose relevant structural adjustments.

	weaknesses and preserve strengths, demonstrating strategic thinking.			weaknesses.
3. Leadership Style (10 Marks)	Excellent (90-100%)	Very Good (80-89%)	Satisfactory (70-79%)	Needs Improvement (60-69%)	Unsatisfactory (Below 60%)
Role Description & Context	Clearly and concisely describes the role, responsibilities, challenges, and opportunities, providing a strong foundation for the leadership style analysis.	Describes the role, responsibilities, challenges, and opportunities effectively.	Describes the role, responsibilities, challenges, and opportunities with basic information.	Provides a superficial description of the role, responsibilities, challenges, and opportunities.	Fails to describe the role, responsibilities, challenges, and opportunities.
Style Selection & Justification	Selects and provides a compelling and well-supported justification for the most suitable leadership style, drawing on relevant theories and role-specific factors.	Selects and provides a good justification for the chosen leadership style, referencing relevant theories and role-specific factors.	Selects a leadership style with some justification, but the connection to theories and role-specific factors may be weak.	Provides a weak justification for the chosen leadership style, demonstrating limited understanding of relevant theories or role-specific factors.	Fails to select or justify a suitable leadership style, demonstrating a significant misunderstanding.
Benefits & Limitations	Evaluates 2-3 potential benefits and limitations with real examples, demonstrating a nuanced understanding of the chosen style in the specific context.	Evaluates 2-3 benefits and limitations with relevant examples.	Evaluates 2-3 benefits and limitations with basic examples.	Provides a superficial evaluation of benefits and limitations, with weak or missing examples.	Fails to evaluate benefits and limitations.
Mitigation Strategies	Proposes 1-2 effective mitigation strategies to address the limitations of the chosen style, demonstrating strategic thinking.	Proposes 1-2 mitigation strategies to address the limitations.	Proposes 1-2 mitigation strategies with limited justification.	Proposes mitigation strategies that are poorly justified or do not address key limitations.	Fails to propose relevant mitigation strategies.
Total Mark /30					