

Decision-Making Style Test

Instructions: For each statement, choose the response that best reflects your typical behavior or preference.

- Circle only one corresponding score per each question.
- Total your score at the end to determine your dominant decision-making style.

Statement	Circle only one answer per each question
1. When faced with a decision, I typically:
* Quickly gather the essential facts and make a decision.	4
* Carefully analyze all available information before making a decision.		3
* Brainstorm creative solutions and consider various possibilities.			2
* Discuss the decision with others and seek their input.				1
2. I prefer to work in an environment that is:
* Structured and predictable.	4
* Challenging and dynamic.		3
* Innovative and collaborative.			2
* Supportive and harmonious.				1
3. When making a decision, I am most concerned with:
* Efficiency and immediate results.	4
* Accuracy and thoroughness.		3
* Long-term impact and innovation.			2
* The impact on others and their feelings.				1
4. I am most comfortable with:
* Clear-cut solutions and minimal ambiguity.	4
* Complex situations and uncertainty.		3
* Exploring new ideas and challenging assumptions.			2
* Working with others to reach a consensus.				1

5. I am more likely to:
* Trust my gut instincts.	4
* Rely on logic and data.		3
* Think outside the box.			2
* Seek harmony and avoid conflict.				1
6. When faced with a problem, I tend to:
* Take charge and make a quick decision.	4
* Gather information and analyze the situation.		3
* Brainstorm creative solutions.			2
* Discuss the problem with others and seek their advice.				1
7. I am more likely to be described as:
* Decisive and action-oriented.	4
* Analytical and detail-oriented.		3
* Creative and visionary.			2
* Collaborative and supportive.				1
8. I am most motivated by:
* Achieving immediate results.	4
* Solving complex problems.		3
* Making a difference in the world.			2
* Building strong relationships.				1
Total

Note: This test provides a general indication of your dominant decision-making style. You may find that you use a combination of styles depending on the situation.